Connection to Christ (C2C)

A Special Invitation for Small Group leaders:

Would you like the opportunity to make this year's Advent Season more meaningful? If so, please consider being a part of a C2C group!

This November we will start up our C2C small group communities again in anticipation of Advent. St. Gregory the Great will use a new book called, Advent Awakenings: Trust the Lord , to revive in our hearts the true spirit of Advent.

Here's how it works- Groups of 6-10 people will meet each of the 4 weeks of Advent for about 90 minutes per session. Every group meeting includes time for prayer, reading of the weekly Sunday Gospel, reflection, discussion and ideas for action.

In addition to our current small group leaders, we are seeking additional parishioners to lead groups to help grow this community. How about you? As a leader you'll be given everything you need to succeed – easy resources, training (just two evening sessions) and support by the C2C team here at the parish. You determine when it's best for your group to meet.

Please prayerfully consider being a leader, and contact us if you are interested.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP- RECOGNIZING GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

BY: TRACY EARL WELLIVER, MTS

Chancing the Narrow Gate

From doctors to counselors, anthropologists to schoolteachers, it seems like everyone has their own parenting style to peddle, guaranteeing it will result in a happy and well-adjusted kid.

You've got "gentle parenting," predicated on respect for the child's feelings and needs. You've got "attachment parenting," based on the belief that kids need time to adjust to being outside of the womb. You've got "free-range parenting," where self-sufficiency reigns supreme. But of all the parenting approaches I've come across, I've never encountered a philosophy that rejects discipline altogether.

There are lots of conflicting opinions on how best to administer that discipline, but I've never heard any parent or parenting "expert" worth their salt say that a mother or father should completely ignore misbehavior that threatens the well-being of the child himself.

Discipline is in our human DNA. Consider for a moment what the world would look like if it came to be filled with people who had never been taught to reflect on their life challenges. People who bristled at the suggestion of personal growth. And yet we become this way with God. Even the most "devout" among us shy away from occasions of divine constructive criticism. We avoid confession and forego daily examinations of conscience. We keep things superficial in our prayer life, avoiding depth of heart and real intimacy with God, afraid of what He will speak to us.

But when we do this, we rob ourselves of an opportunity to rely on God's fatherly strength, to rest in His mercy, to fill ourselves up with His goodness. We're putting up our hands, saying: "No thanks, Father, I'm good. You can keep your discipline. You can keep your grace." When we do this, we are making a beeline for the "narrow gate," sure of our own strength and ability to pass through it. All I can say is this, proceed at your own peril. Are you so sure of yourself?

Father Joe's Villages Ladies Guild cordially invites you to the 39th Annual September Membership Luncheon.

Join us for this catered luncheon on Monday, September 12th from 11:30am-1:30pm at St. Gregory the Great Hall and learn about volunteer opportunities

We are a service organization that provides funds for homeless children and provides WOMAN-power to assist at events and services at Father Joe's Villages.
