24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOD WAITS
FOR US

So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' Let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.'

On this September 11th, we join Catholics throughout the country who are completing a nine-day novena of prayer, fasting, education, service and witness. We ask a Merciful God to receive those who have died, to heal a wounded people and to nourish our faith and our hope in the promise of the Christ Risen. We ask the God of Justice to give us the grace, wisdom and courage to help us comfort those who mourn, to show mercy, to hunger and thirst for what is right and to become peacemakers (Matthew 5). We echo the words that Pope John Paul II has said, "Evil...does not have the final word in human affairs."

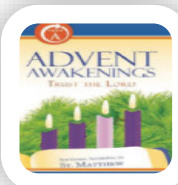

St. Gregory the Great's Free Outdoor Summer Concert Series

concludes with a performance by Dana Catherine

September 16, 2022

Free Food/Drinks will be served at 5:30pm-followed by the concert at 7:00pm. These evenings include activities and snacks for the whole family (bounce house, crafts and popcorn). Knights of Columbus provide complimentary food (grilled hamburgers, hot dogs, coleslaw, and chips) along with non-alcoholic drinks (water, lemonade, and tea). Beer & Wine available for purchase. Please bring seating for everyone in your group!

Connection to Christ (C2C)

A Special Invitation for Small Group Leaders:

Would you like the opportunity to make this year's Advent Season more meaningful? If so, please consider being a part of a C2C group!

This November we will start up our C2C small group communities again in anticipation of Advent. St. Gregory the Great will use a new book called, Advent Awakenings: Trust the Lord.

Here's how it works- groups of 6-10 people meet each of the 4 weeks of Advent for about 90 minutes per session. Every group meeting includes time for prayer, reading of the weekly Sunday Gospel, reflection, discussion and ideas for action.

In addition to our current small group leaders, we are seeking additional parishioners to lead groups to grow this community. How about you? As a leader you'll be given everything you need to succeed - easy resources, training (just two evening sessions) and support by the C2C team here at the parish. You determine when it's best for your group to meet.

Please prayerfully consider being a leader, and contact us if you are interested.

*Please Support Options United,
Helping Women in Need*

In today's world, Catholics are called to support unborn children and their mothers so that no woman feels she has no choice but abortion. Do you know someone facing an unexpected or difficult pregnancy, in need of prenatal care, or support with young children? This critical support service connects women and families to the 170+ pregnancy centers and other life-affirming resources across the state, but it can only be provided with your help. The bishops in all twelve of our California dioceses have endorsed this pioneering service and are united in asking you to prayerfully consider making a monthly donation of any size at www.optionsunited.com/one

Sadly, California is presently one of the most permissive states in the nation for abortion. Proposition 1 promotes an unlimited expansion of abortion here, while its defeat would keep all abortion laws as they are, including our common-sense limits on late-term abortions. Our bishops are calling us to unite in prayer and action to defeat Prop 1. Please visit www.CAcatholic.org/Prop1 to find answers to common questions and resources to help defeat this misleading, expensive, and unnecessary ballot initiative

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP- RECOGNIZING GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

BY: TRACY EARL WELLIVER, MTS

Rise, and Go to Your Father

“If you pull into my driveway and honk, you better be dropping off a package, because you're sure not picking anything up.” I first read these words in the pages of W. Bruce Cameron's “8 Simple Rules for Dating my Teenage Daughter,” (that's Rule No. 5, by the way). There's a certain respect that is shown by someone who takes the time to come to the door, ring the bell and wait to be greeted. Being willing to go through the niceties for the sake of appearances is a small act of deference on the part of the person doing the picking-up, even if it's not for a date. Without it, the whole scenario becomes entitled. I want you to think of something that you want or need, but do not have. Is it peace? Is it financial stability? Is it strength? Is it friendship? The brother of the prodigal son had a lot of unexpressed desires. He sees his brother heaped with gifts and favors, feasting on the fattened calf, and he is enraged. I haven't been given half of that, he thinks, and I've worked so hard. But for all his faithfulness, one has to wonder — did this son ever simply ask for what he needed? Did he get out of the car, so to speak, and ring the bell? Or did he sit in the driveway leaning on the horn? God wants us to come before Him. He wants us to ask. He wants us to be like Moses — sure enough of our Father's indulgence to boldly ask for it. Think again about what you need but do not have, and ask yourself: Have I approached the door and rung the bell? Who is willing to do the good deed for the sake of the other? God doesn't care that much about what we have to offer. He cares much more that we have the strength to offer whatever we have.
