Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

When Jesus and his disciples drew near to Jerusalem, Jesus said to two of the disciples, "Go into the village and immediately you will find an ass tethered, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. And if anyone should say anything to you, reply, 'The master has need of them.' Then he will send them at once."

Mt 21:1-11

Now imagine you are out to lunch somewhere and suddenly you see two men outside attempting to steal your car. You run outside and confront them. They say, "the master has need of it." How would you respond? Would you just let them take it? Most people would not.

How could it have happened seemingly so easily? We learn that Jesus gave the owners of the animals grace to be able to let go of what was rightfully theirs, and to trust that the, "The master has need of it."

As Holy Week begins, Jesus will perhaps send people to you to ask for something valuable to you. Perhaps it will be your car, but more likely it's going to be something like your attention, time or energy. It's natural to resist at first. We've got things to do, after all. But if the interruption is from Jesus himself, listen to that voice which calmly says, "The master has need of it." And simply let it go. You'll be amazed what the master will do with it.

Everyday Stewardship

As a Catholic, I am very grateful for the wonderful expression of the Mass. When united in this liturgical experience, we are not only present to the reality of the bread and wine becoming the real presence of Jesus, but are also connected spiritually to the institution of the Holy Eucharist at the Last Supper and to the future heavenly banquet at the end of time. During the Eucharistic Prayer, this is a time to be truly as mindful as we can to what is happening in our midst. Our effort to completely surrender ourselves to the moment is a true act of stewardship.

When we hear the Gospel reading of the passion and death of Jesus at Mass, we are also being called to give of ourselves completely to the moment and to be truly caught up in the story. We should strive to be there at the events of over two thousand years ago, but also to what the reality of those events mean for us today. To do this effectively, we need to spend more time reflecting on the dynamics of the events of Jesus' passion. Hopefully, our Lent has been fruitful and we have spent time with devotions like the Stations of the Cross. Maybe we have taken time to read Scripture slowly and deliberately, taking time to let each aspect sink into our mind and spirit. If Lent has been instead a time of too much business and not much prayer and reflection, the good news is that it is never too late.

During this Holy Week, take some time to enter into the story of the Passion. Good stewardship calls us to not only give of that which can be seen, but also that which cannot be seen. Surrender your mind, body, and spirit to Jesus. He carries his cross before you and beckons you to follow him.

Donations collected March 26 and April 2nd and 9th will be published in a later bulletin edition. Happy Easter!

Pope Francis has asked parish's around the world to donate to his special collection on Good Friday. This collection aids Christians in the Holy Land, where the Christians are now less than 2% of the population. Great support is essential to help parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. It will also help meet the basic needs of many in their country. The next time you find yourself in our parish's quiet room for children, you will be pleased to find this lovely bookshelf and books. These were graciously donated by Nadine Luciano. We are thankful and truly grateful for this gift which will help many
