DID YOU KNOW...

Without the gifts of the Holy Spirit, Christians lack that which animates them and gives them internal life and harmony. "Without the Spirit, our Christian life unravels, lacking the love that brings everything together." Pope Francis

What an amazing gift we have been given! The Lord takes delight in all his peoples. The Holy Spirit, the third Person of the Holy Trinity, truly God, is given to us. Jesus says, "Here, believers. Here is God. For you." Times may get tough, big trouble may arise, and we may even encounter suffering in our lives, but Jesus reminds us, "I am not only giving you something to help you through this, I'm actually giving God to you. The Spirit that proceeds from the Father is your helper." What more do we need?

Through the sacraments of the church, God touches us and enters into our lives in a profound manner. The first transfer of the holy spirit in the upper room at Pentecost, ignited the growth of the Church which has expanded to a lively and flourishing world force. At Mass we renew our commitment to honor God's spirit in our daily lives.

God's presence as a flame or fire within us, warms and enriches our lives and actions. Wearing red to mass on Pentecost symbolizes our celebration of the gift of the spirit of God.

Pentecost Sunday celebrates the spirit of God within each of us. Go ahead and let your spirit glow!

Everyday Stewardship

We Are Never Alone

My children want my help sometimes, and other times, not so much. I remember being a teenager and young adult myself. At times, I thought I knew everything. I didn't need help because I was just so darn smart. Truth is, I needed to find my own way. I needed to stretch my wings and prove to myself and my family I could fly. I assume that is what is happening with my own children as well. It just seems so different now that I'm the parent.

Human beings need help. We need community, and we need to rely on one another. At Pentecost, we reflect on Jesus sending to the Church a helper, the Holy Spirit. God interacting with us in this manner means we are never truly alone. We focus most of the time on the Spirit of God as the assistance we need, and we do need Him for sure. However, since it is that very same Spirit that turned us into "Church" from a band of people looking to carry on after Jesus' ascension, at Pentecost we gained more than divine help: we gained each other.

Today, the Church needs help in a profound way. We need to lean on the Holy Spirit to blow through the Church with a profound renewal. But we cannot forget that we have been given each other to lean on as well. We are a gift to each other, and together with the Spirit's help, we are the Body of Christ here on earth. We must be strong and stand for one another. If we do that, this Pentecost will bear fruit that will be with us for many Pentecosts to come.
