Everyday Stewardship by: Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

You know how the story goes. Your kid swears that while you were gone, he invited two friends over to watch a movie and eat popcorn. How it suddenly turned into twenty-five people more with beer is still a mystery. Of course they weren't invited, but your kid could not kick them out-good hospitality, right?

That sure is a twisted view of hospitality, but it makes me think about how willing I am to welcome those invited or not into my home. Who is my neighbor? Would I extend hospitality to the person that is alone? I have done so for the holidays. But I have known them well. Would I invite someone into my home that I did not know? It could be unsafe. But what if I found myself alone somewhere without any connections, Where would I turn? Who could I trust?

If I, as a Christian, will not invite the lost and forsaken, who will? In the coming days, let's reflect on those in our midst who seem to be alone. Who can we invite into our lives who need something much more important than a party? Who is out there who simply needs friends? They may not need a physical shelter but they do need the warmth of Christian Hospitality and the kindness of others.
