Did you know that there are millions, or even billions of people that have been made saints? Of course we don't know them all by name, but we can still celebrate their faithfulness to God. All Saints' Day was established on November 1 by Pope Gregory III in the mid-eighth century as a day dedicated to the saints. It is a Holy Day of Obligation, so please make plans to attend.

Join Fr. Jerry and the school children at 8am Mass, or Fr. Bart at the 7pm evening Mass.

Join us as we pray and give thanks to God for Helen Kremp. She and her family have been parishioners for many years and she has been serving our community, in different ministries, for many of those years. Now, Helen has answered the call from God to serve Him with the Carmelite Sisters in Christoval, TX. She will continue to pray for us all as she is cloistered in her community. The order's Motto is, "With zeal, have I been most zealous for the Lord, the God of Hosts." 1 Kings 19:10.

Come celebrate Mass on The Feast of All Souls at 8am or 7pm on Nov. 2nd.

We pray for all souls that are still undergoing the process of Purification before they can attain heaven. All Souls Day differs from All Saints Day in that All Saints are already in heaven.

CANCER:
Surviving, Striving,
Thriving

This evening, STGG's Family Cancer Support Ministry will host a panel of men who have faced cancer. They will share real life experiences they and their families have faced throughout this trying period. They say keeping a healthy focus on their bodies, minds and spirits has helped tremendously.

This presentation is on Thurs, November 9th, from 7pm-8:30pm in the Parish Hall. (11451 Blue Cypress Dr. San Diego, CA 92131) and is open to all interested adults!

Spouses will also be part of the presentation as they have found that co-survivors are crucial to surviving and thriving.

Following the talk will be a Q & A session and an opportunity for fellowship with light dessert and beverage refreshments.
