Lent Week 2

What can we do
to re-engage when our Lenten resolutions are no longer new?

“It seems to happen every year, like clockwork: we drag a bit, as we enter into the second week of Lent. On Ash Wednesday, we feel like soldiers ready to rush into battle, ‘Transform us through sacrifice, God-Your will be done!’ Then week 2 hits, and our Lenten resolutions can go, “from shiny and new to dull-they may even become annoyances and inconveniences, which somehow are the hardest to bear!”

Because transformation, in real life, happens slowly, it may be difficult to see. It’s not always a dramatic thing. It is however, hard won by perseverance-despite weariness, or the continual denial of some pleasure (even though you hear a voice in your head that says, Go ahead, God doesn’t really mind.’)

Luckily, the week’s readings can jolt us back with a double-whammy hit of dramatic sacrificial scenes. We hear Abraham’s cry, “Ready” when God called, never imagining what God would ask of him. We see Christ himself transfigured, as God shows us what He is ready to give up for love of us.

We must stay committed to consistently, persevering daily and acknowledging that everything belongs to God. What we sacrifice, we simply give back to Him.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Assistance For FAITH FORMATION

Evangelization is at the core of the Church’s mission. The purpose is to bring Jesus’ life-giving message of love to all. The Diocese collaborates with parishes, schools and other groups to form disciples while deepening the faith of the community members.

The Diocese organizes all kinds of programs which provide spiritual enrichment in English, Spanish and in Vietnamese.

The Diocese continues to engage churches in the synodal process where people can express their desires for our ever-alive Catholic Church.

Your contributions help with the work that will deepen their faith in the years to come.

Our Response as Stewards

Reflect on the many gifts you have received from God. Including your financial blessings.

Pray about how God wants you to use the gifts he has given you.

Respond by supporting the mission.

You can give at your parish or online at giving.sdcatholic.org.
