“Marriage is an extraordinary good; a good of extraordinary value for everyone: for the spouses themselves, for their children, for all families with whom they form relationships, for the entire church, for all of humanity.” (Pope Francis, Jan. 27, 2023)

During this Jubilee Year of Hope, Pope Francis has invited us to share in making our world a better place, by teaching and supporting the sacred, Sacrament of Marriage. We are tasked to help advance this mission right here at St. Gregory the Great.

If you are interested in embarking on this journey, or have further questions, please come to the Hall, after the 5pm Mass, on Sunday, February 16th for a Marriage Enrichment Informational Meeting. Light refreshments will be served.

Please contact Ron and Kathy Medenwald @ mkmrem@cox.net. or call (619) 917-6311 for further information.

Is the Holy Spirit inviting you to a

Paulist Father's priesthood?

Across the United States, Paulist Fathers work to connect people to the Catholic faith and accompany those on the margins of society. It's normal to have questions about religious life and the Catholic priesthood. Your parents, family, and friends may react in different ways when you tell them, "I'm thinking of becoming a priest." The first step is to start a conversation and prayer.
