April 13, 2025

As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen.

Dear Parish family,

Since my arrival, you have all heard from me about the marvelous woman known to me as Mommy. For me and my siblings, Mommy was the theologian who taught us to love God. She exemplified what it meant to serve God, even when we did not feel like doing so. Mommy taught us virtue and the importance of applying it daily.

Of course, I feel the void in her untimely death. However, I have been overwhelmingly comforted by the love and support my family and I received from so many of you during this difficult time. Confident that God does not close a door without opening a window, a humble yet sincere thanks to all of you for being that "window" of comfort. Indeed, words cannot truly capture the gratitude I feel in my heart for the phone calls, the cards, the emails, the words of assurance, and the silent hugs that remind me to be gentle to myself during this period of grief.

I could have been assigned anywhere, but I am grateful I am with all of you during this difficult time. Your sincerity is rich, support is encouraging and love is comforting. I do not doubt that healing will come through the months, weeks, and days ahead because of you. From the depths of my heart, thanks!

God is Good...all the time...and all the time...God is good.

Grace and blessings,
Fr. Bart Landry, CSP
Pastor
