ADVENT WEEK 4

Love: God with Us

Love is the heart of Advent. In sending His Son, God wrapped Himself in humanity and moved into our neighborhood. Christ's coming is the ultimate act of love-sacrificial, unearned, and everlasting. As we light the final candle, let us remember that love is not just something we receive; it's something we're called to live out. Let us embody that love in our relationships, generosity, and most of all, in our compassion.

Prayer:

Lord, thank You for loving me first. Help me to share that love with others, not just in words, but in action and truth. May my life reflect the love of Christ this Advent.

©LPI

May the joy of our Savior's birth be with you, WHEREEVER YOU MAY BE.

Christmas BLESSINGS

May God bless all military, first responders,
health workers,
and all who are unable to be with their families on Christmas Day.

"God is home. We are in a far off country. We are invited to walk each other home."

(Gregory Boyle, SJ, Founder of Homeboy Industries)

Spiritual directors walk directees' home. They listen to each one's sacred story to help them notice the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit in their lives. The true director is the Holy Spirit. Together directors aid directees' in discernment, prayer, and understanding as they seek to deepen their relationship with the Lord.

For the Repose of the Soul of:
 Tony Magsaysay

In this Sunday's Gospel, Joseph receives a dream. He's confused, afraid. But in the quiet of sleep, God speaks: "Do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home" (Matthew 1:20). When he wakes, Joseph acts. He doesn't overanalyze or dismiss the message. He trusts, and acts.

God still speaks — not necessarily through literal dreams but through those deeper intuitions of the heart. St. Ignatius of Loyola taught that God's voice draws us into peace, courage, and love. But we have to listen to it. Advent is a time for stillness. As we prepare for Christ's coming, we're invited to enter that quiet space where God's voice can be heard.

When and how do you become most receptive to God? Is it in silence? In prayer? In nature? At Mass? This week, go there. Be still. Listen. And like Joseph, have the courage to act on what God shows you.

Great News!!!

Please be advised that the original Health and Safety Ministry that has been serving our Parish for many years is growing and taking on new responsibilities. They will now be called,

The St. Gregory the Great Safety and Security Team.

This non-confrontational team is seeking men and women to join them for the purpose of keeping our church and grounds safe.

As a volunteer you will be asked to walk the grounds before and after Mass. You will also need to be comfortable calling 911 in case of an emergency. All members will be trained to make sure they are totally prepared and comfortable in the role.

To learn more, please contact Linda Mullvain at 858-248-0040 or email lindacmullvain@gmail.com

BEWARE OF THE COLD, COVID AND FLU SEASON. FOLLOW THESE GENERAL HEALTH REMINDERS.

Stay home when sick. It is not a sin to miss Mass if you are ill. The 9am & 11am Masses are live streamed so join that way. If you have a fever, cough or other flu-like symptom, stay home until you have recovered completely! Prevent the spread of illness by washing hands often with warm water and soap, or use an alcohol based hand sanitizer. (Use the hand sanitizer dispensers in the church.) Cover your mouth & nose with a tissue or the crook of your elbow when you cough or sneeze. During the Sign of Peace, wave, smile, give a nod of the head, or use a verbal greeting—these are appropriate ways to share God's peace. When possible, use hand sanitizer before Communion. Let's work together to keep each other healthy!
