Meet Tina Mata

Our New
Rituals & Sacraments Coordinator!

After a successful career in the Information Technology field as a web application and database developer, Tina recently retired and is excited to begin this new chapter of service and ministry with our parish community.

Tina is a devoted wife and mother of two children and one son-in-law. She enjoys spending time with her family, including one beloved dog and one "grand dog." She looks forward to meeting parishioners, supporting families through the sacramental journey, and helping foster meaningful and prayerful celebrations within the Saint Gregory the Great community. Please join us in warmly welcoming her to Saint Gregory the Great!

Prince of peace, we humbly ask your protection for all our men and women in military service. Give them unflinching courage to defend with honor, dignity and devotion, the rights of all who are imperiled by injustice and evil. Be their rock, their shield, and their stronghold and let them draw their strength from you.

For you are God, for ever and ever.
